TENTH. To the fullest extent permitted by the New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, a trustee of this Corporation shall not be personally liable to this Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a trustee. Any repeal or modification of this Article TENTH shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a trustee of this Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

ELEVENTH. (A) This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigatory (other than an action by or in the right of this Corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a trustee, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such act, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea or nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of this Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(B) Expenses incurred by an officer or trustee in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon the receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such trustee or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the board of trustees deems appropriate.

(C) In addition to the right of indemnification provided for in this Article ELEVENTH, this Corporation shall, to the fullest and broadest extent permitted by applicable law, including, without limitation, the New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation Act as they may be amended from time to time, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify pursuant thereto.

(D) The right of indemnification provided by this Article ELEVENTH shall apply as to action by any person in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a trustee, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(E) The right of indemnification provided by this Article ELEVENTH shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote or stockholders or disinterested trustee or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a trustee, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executor and administrators of such a person.

(F) The right of indemnification provided by this Article ELEVENTH shall be deemed to be a contract between this Corporation and each trustee, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation who serves in such capacity, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, at any time while this Article ELEVENTH and applicable law, if any, are in effect, and any repeal or modification thereof shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing with respect to any state of facts then or theretofore existing or any action, suit or proceeding theretofore or thereafter brought or threatened based in whole or in part upon any such state of facts.
(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this Article ELEVENTH to the contrary, this Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a trustee, officer, employee or agent of this corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not this Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

(H) For purposes of this Article ELEVENTH, references to “other enterprises” shall include employee benefit plans; references to “fines” shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to “serving at the request of the corporation” shall include any service as a trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such trustee, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries, and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participant and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner “not opposed to the best interests of the corporation” as referred to in this Article ELEVENTH.

TWELFTH. This Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the certificate of incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, or by the certificate of incorporation.
